DISAGREEMENTS ABOUT CUSTODY AND PARENTAL RIGHTS

Disagreements about custody and parental rights shall not be dealt with or resolved by District staff. District personnel shall not take the "side" of one family member over another in such disagreements. District staff will make an effort, within reason, to accommodate expectations of both sides. It shall be the responsibility of the person requesting an accommodation to inform and provide District staff with the court order allowing such action(s).

Court orders shall be followed by District personnel.
