POLICY: 502.1

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student government councils may exist at the Middle School and the Senior High. They will exist to encourage participation in the various activities of school and to provide opportunity for training in democratic processes. Student government shall assist in improving the general welfare of all students.

Student government shall not have the authority to make District policies or regulations. They shall not have any disciplinary authority, except for the possible removal of a member of the council. A council may make recommendations to Administration on topics of student concern.

A student government council and said sponsor shall keep channels of communication open among themselves and between all students and the council.
